PEACE INTERNATIONAL
FOUNDATION
Bringing Hope, Changing Lives

Through youth-centered education and active community involvement, Peace International Foundation advances the United Nations' peace initiatives. Since our establishment in 2008, Peace International Foundation has blossomed into a robust network, joining hands across ethnicity, nationalities, professional and social backgrounds through its NGO initiatives and a single common thread – peace.

Peace International Foundation is proud to co-host the 6th Annual UN Peace Day with the United Nations. The week-long Hong Kong Peace Festival, 21-29 September, represents Hong Kong's contribution to the worldwide celebrations for the UN International Day of Peace.

This year's theme of "Education for Peace", aims to promote the growing efforts of educators around the world to integrate Peace building and global engagement into curricular for students of all ages. Through a variety of educational and intercultural events, we join forces with countries from all around the world to unite people from different ethnic groups and cultural backgrounds to achieve our ultimate goal of World Peace through Education.

Thank you for supporting our quest for peace, and the development of the first International Peace Centre in Hong Kong.
